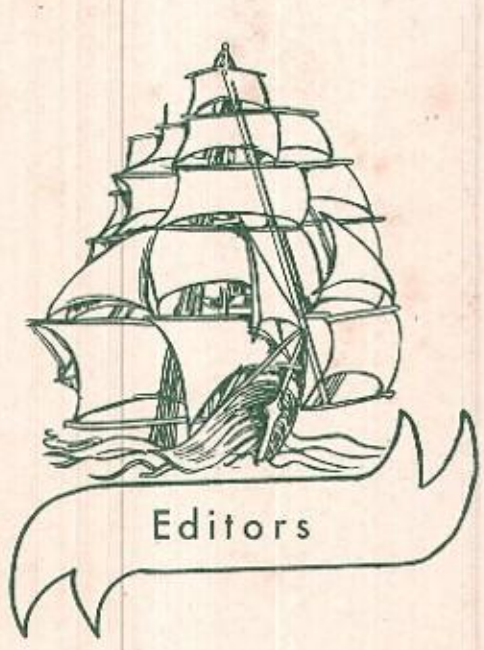
THE SENIOR CLASS OF

ST. STEPHENS HIGH SCHOOL

Mary Moser Shirley Lail



Realizing that the voyage of High School life is nearing an end, and that we shall soon begin the voyage of Real Life, we use a ship to symbolize our motto, "Launched But Not Anchored."

As we portray the history of our journey at St. Stephen's High School, we sincerely hope that the memories of experiences and friendships acquired throughout these years will remain vivid in our minds through the help of this our 1953 CORONA.

Class Poem

As we are leaving our dear school,
We leave with heavy heart;
For here we've learned the golden rule,
From this, we'll never part.
The flower we've chosen is for power,
Yes, it's the carnation;
And we have learned from hour to hour
With great adoration,
That St. Stephens, yes,
St. Stephens is best.

Our banner is of green and white
For hope and purity;
And we shall strive with all our might
Very God-like to be.
Yes, we are launched, but not secure;
We shall not fear the way.
One thing of which we are so sure
Is that we sing today,
That St. Stephens, yes,
St. Stephens is best.

The Class Log

Four years ago we Seniors boarded the famous ship, St. Stephens High School, realizing that this voyage would make an important part in the History of our lives. The destination of our voyage seemed so far away, but under the capable command of Mr. D. S. Clark and his co-workers, Mrs. T. R. Bain, and Mrs. Donald Frazier, we journeyed successfully the first year.

As we charted our course again, we no longer allowed the troubled waters to discourage us. After working harmoniously the second year with our new co-captains, Mrs. Hazel B. Purkey, Mrs. Ruth K. Yount, and Mrs. Dorthy Lonon, we realized that our voyage was half completed.

We began our third year under the command of Mrs. Ruth Yount and Mr. Calvin Ledbetter. Our one big task accomplished this year was to have a farewell dinner on deck for those who were going ashore at the next port. Our co-captains needed much help with this project so we selected chiefs of the crew to assist them. They were Royce Lee Good, President; Ralph Drum, Vice-President; Mary Joe Beam, Secretary; Joan Propst, Treasurer. In order to take care of the finances of the banquet, all caught fish and dried them to sell at the markets. As our third year came to an end, we looked back on the year's work and were well-satisfied.

Now we are in the fourth year of our voyage under the faithful guidance of Mrs. Christine Mauney and Mrs. Anna Gray Anderson. Again this year the co-captains need assistants to rely on whenever there is a big task to be undertaken, so the following were chosen: George Barger, President; Mary Moser, Vice-President; Peggy Duncan, Secretary; Camilla Yount, Treasurer. At last we have caught sight of the port which is to be our goal in this voyage. We shall never forget the days aboard the faithful ship, St. Stephens High School, and our Pilot, Mr. W. A. Murray, who patiently directed us from the beginning to the end of our voyage.

As we land at the harbor, we all gather on deck and sing with one accord, "Dear Old St. Stephens High School," which became the favorite song of the crew when we gathered on deck in the evening.

It is time now for me to close our class log, for our voyage of High School Life is nearing its end, and the Senior Class of 1953 will begin soon the Voyage of Real Life.

Dear Old St. Stephens High School,
We sing your praise.
Your fame shall be our aim,
Through all our days.
Oh! Raise aloud the Chorus!
When we leave your portals,
Be we far or nigh,
We'll be found cheering for
St. Stephens High.

LAUNCHED
"I Would"
I would be true for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave for there is much to dare.
"Be True"
I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.

THE FUTURE TEACHERS PLEDGE

The Good Teacher Requires:

PHYSICAL VITALITY: I will try to keep my body well and strong.

MENTAL VIGOR: I will study daily to keep my mind active and alert.

MORAL DISCRIMINATION: I will seek to know the right and to live by it.

WHOLESOME PERSONALITY: I will cultivate in myself goodwill, friendliness, poise, upright bearing and careful speech.

HELPFULNESS: I will learn the art of helping others by doing helpful things daily in school and home.

KNOWLEDGE: I will fill my mind with worthy thoughts by observing the beautiful world around me, by reading the best books, and by association with the best companions.

LEADERSHIP: I will make my influence count on the side of right, avoiding habits that weaken and destroy.

These things will I do that I may be worthy the high office of teacher.
